

Great Outdoors, Inc. Jamboree!

September 24-27, 2009

Morro Bay State Park

Morro Bay State Park is a gem of a site for our annual Corporate Jamboree. Located on the shore of Morro Bay, with the famed Morro Rock as our backdrop, you can expect a three night/four day weekend full of activities. Morro Bay has everything for a perfect summer's-end trip.

The forested campsite was originally planted by the Civilian Conservation Corp crews during the 1930s. We have reserved a large group site for tents and several close-by individual sites for those with RV's or trailers. The campsite has showers and flush toilets.

The State Park includes Ecological Reserve walks, the Morro Bay Museum, Morro Bay Marina with canoes and kayaks, golfing, trails into the watersheds and bicycling routes. Montana de Oro State Park, with its amazing ridge trails overlooking the ocean, is open to explore for day use.

A short distance from our campground is the quaint laid-back town of Morro Bay, perfect for exploring on foot with its famous fishing pier and up close view of Morro Rock. You can walk, jog, or bike...it's that close!

Nearby Los Osos Oaks State Reserve offers a 90-acre enchanted grove of fantastically gnarled, centuries-old, coast live oak sitting on ancient dunes. Think Hobbit! An easy flat system of trails winds through this must-see location.

What to Bring: Bring food and beverages for your needs, good hiking shoes, a hat, proper clothing, bedding, camping gear, two bundles of fire wood and the standard "Ten Essentials" (www.greatoutdoors.org). The camp site has coin operated showers and flush toilets. The town of Morro Bay is immediately adjacent for extra supplies.

The group site may not have sufficient table space. If you can bring a table and chairs for you and/or your group, please do.

Since this a Jamboree, there will be plenty of opportunity to connect and meet with other chapter members. We will have a "tea" at the group site on Saturday at 4PM. Bring your very best culinary skills and a dish to a pot luck on Saturday night at 6PM. Campfires at night, of course!

Directions from So. CA: From the South, take Highway 101 northbound to the Los Osos - Baywood Park offramp. Turn left toward Los Osos and travel about 10 miles to South Bay Blvd., then turn right onto State Park Road and proceed about 3 miles to the State Park entrance. Exact address for Mapquest: 20 State Park Rd., Morro Bay, CA 93442

Parking: First 15 vehicles at the Group site are free of charge. All others, $5/night at the bay front parking lot. At individual sites, first vehicle or RV is at no charge, next vehicle is $5/night.
