

Great Outdoors
Los Angeles

The first thing that you may notice about the Cottonwood Springs campground is that there aren't any Joshua Trees! Our campsites are at approximately 3,000 feet above sea level; Joshua Trees, the park's namesake plant, are restricted to the higher elevation near Jumbo Rocks. This lower swath of desert is marked by creosote bush, yucca, and cactus, and for those who savor a great hike, a lush fan palm oasis. There is, indeed, a spring at Cottonwood. This was once an important stopping place for prospectors and other desert travelers. Today it's a great place to kick back and enjoy sweeping vistas and some great desert rambles.

Out Campsite

We have reserved Group Site 1 in the Cottonwood area of Joshua Tree National Park. Our site is a bit Spartan, but there is water and restrooms. We're limited to fifteen campers and seven vehicles (no RVs). Because of park restrictions, pets are not allowed on this trip. PDF Map of Park

What to Expect

April in Joshua Tree is magnificent. We're at 3,000 feet, so days will be warm and sunny, and nights mild. Rain is unlikely, but strong evening winds are common.

What to Bring

You'll need your regular camp gear...which would include a tent/tarp/sleeping bag/pad. For camp cooking, bring a propane stove and fuel canister/utensils/food/cooler. Casual camp clothing should suffice, with shorts/hiking boots/sunscreen/water/lunch for day hikes, and something warm for nights. Park admission...$15...is not included in the cost of registration.

How to Get There ... Carpooling

From Los Angeles take the 1-10 east. Twenty five miles east of Indio, take the Mecca/29 Palms off-ramp and follow it to the national park. Follow the signs to the group campsite area; we're in site 1. You may arrive any time after 1PM. Because this site can only accommodate 7 vehicles, we must carpool. As registrations come in, I will email names of those offering / seeking transportation so you can coordinate carpooling. Click here for Directions

Activities

Friday (4/9) Arrive at our campsite any time after 1PM. We'll have a get acquainted campfire and games after dinner (please bring a bundle of fire wood).

Sat (4/10) 9:30 AM - Hike to Lost Palms Oases. This is a 7.5 mile (roundtrip) desert ramble. Along the way expect to see barrel cactus in iridescent bloom. Our destination is one of the most beautiful native palm oases; over 110 fan palms are sustained by an underground spring. This is also a habitat for Desert Bighorn Sheep...maybe we'll get lucky! Pack lunch/water/sunscreen/camera.

Sat (4/10) 7 PM - Bring a dish that serves 4 and join a GO potluck tradition. We're reducing our carbon footprint... bring your camp plate and utensils....

Sun (4/11) 9:30AM - Prior to departing, we'll take a brief 3-mile roundtrip hike to nearby Mastodon Peak. This hike provides a good look at the park's geological formations and on a clear day, you may view the Salton Sea.

Sun (4/11) Noon - Check out time.

Registration and Cancellation

Because of the small number of vehicles allowed on this trip, it will fill up, so register early. I will confirm your registration with an email or phone call. To receive a full refund, you must cancel two weeks prior to departure (3/26). Otherwise, refunds will be made only if a suitable replacement is found.
